

Lattice Announces $20 Million Stock Repurchase Program

February 29, 2012

HILLSBORO, OR, Feb 29, 2012 (MARKETWIRE via COMTEX) -- Lattice Semiconductor Corporation (NASDAQ: LSCC) announced today that its Board of Directors has approved a stock repurchase program pursuant to which up to $20 million of its outstanding common stock may be repurchased from time to time. The duration of the repurchase program is twelve months. Under the program, Lattice may purchase shares of its common stock through open market and privately negotiated transactions at prices deemed appropriate by management. The timing and amount of repurchase transactions under this program will depend on market conditions and corporate and regulatory considerations. The purchases will be funded from available working capital. As of February 28, 2012, Lattice had approximately 118,415,975 shares of common stock outstanding.

Lattice Semiconductor concluded a prior twelve month repurchase program in October 2011, having repurchased and retired approximately 2.8 million total shares at a cost of approximately $16.4 million.

"The announcement of a new stock repurchase program reflects our continuing confidence in the Company's prospects and our commitment to our shareholders," stated Darin Billerbeck, Lattice's Chief Executive Officer. "Importantly, our solid financial position allows us to, at the same time, continue delivering innovative low cost and low power solutions to our customers and investing in the areas of our business that will drive our future growth."
