Lattice Receives Partner Award for the Third Time, Showcasing Its Close Involvement With Huawei to Bring Continued Innovation to the Communications Industry

HILLSBORO, OR -- (Marketwired) -- 12/16/13 -- Lattice Semiconductor Corporation (NASDAQ: LSCC) today announced that Huawei Technology Co., Ltd., a global leader in telecommunications network solutions, has recognized Lattice as a "2013 Core Partner" and honored the company with the "2012 Huawei Supplier Cooperation & Support award." Lattice was recognized by Huawei for its quality, delivery, technology cooperation and service.

Lattice received the awards for its excellence as a vendor and core partner at Huawei's annual 2013 Core Partner Convention in Shenzhen, China, where Huawei granted awards to a select group of companies, chosen from more than one thousand of its suppliers.

"Receiving two honorable awards from Huawei demonstrates our dedication to providing the best possible experience to our customers and partners," said Mark Wadlington, Lattice Semiconductor's Corporate Vice President of World Wide Sales. "Lattice helps its partners produce innovative products while staying within cost, power, size and schedule targets. Lattice's team proved instrumental in meeting Huawei's increasing forecast goals in addition to providing a quality product, and we appreciate this recognition."

Lattice's relationship with Huawei is instrumental in the continued success of the company's Shanghai development center. Lattice participates in various industry events in China in addition to collaborating with local companies to help further innovation in the wireless industry.
