(1) Assumes conversion of the full amount of notes held by such holder at the initial conversion price of $12.0612 per share; such conversion price is subject to adjustment as described under "Description of Notes — Conversion of Notes." Accordingly, the number of shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the Notes may increase or decrease from time to time. Under the terms of the Indenture, fractional shares will not be issued upon conversion of the notes; cash will be paid in lieu of fractional shares, if any.

(3) Affiliate of a broker-dealer.

Any selling securityholder which is a "broker-dealer" will be deemed to be an "underwriter" within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act. Goldman Sachs & Company is a selling securityholder who is a registered broker-dealer and, as such, is an underwriter of the notes within the meaning of the Securities Act. Other than the performance of investment banking, commercial banking, advisory and other commercial services for us in the ordinary course of business, we do not have a material relationship with this broker-dealer and this broker-dealer does not have the right to designate or nominate a member or members of our board of directors. This securityholder purchased their notes in the open market, not directly from us, and we are not aware of any underwriting plan or agreement, underwriters' or dealers' compensation, or passive market making or stabilizing transactions involving the purchase or distribution of these securities by the securityholder. To our knowledge, the selling securityholder who is an affiliate of a broker-dealer did not purchase the notes outside of the ordinary course of business or, at the time of the purchase of the notes, had any agreement or understanding, directly or indirectly, with any person to distribute the securities.

The securities offered hereby involve a high degree of risk. See "Risk Factors" beginning on page 10 of the prospectus.
