Item 8.01 Other Events

This Current Report on Form 8-K is being filed in connection with the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated November 3, 2016, by and among Lattice Semiconductor Corporation (“Lattice”), Canyon Bridge Acquisition Company, Inc., and Canyon Bridge Merger Sub, Inc. (the “Merger Agreement”). The definitive proxy statement in connection with the Merger Agreement was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on January 27, 2017. Lattice is filing this Form 8-K to supplement certain disclosure in the proxy statement.

SUPPLEMENT TO PROXY STATEMENT

This supplemental information should be read in conjunction with the definitive proxy statement, which should be read in its entirety, including the cautionary notes regarding the risks and limitations associated with relying on prospective financial information set forth under “Certain Prospective Financial Data.”

The inclusion in this supplement to the proxy statement of certain additional prospective financial information should not be regarded as an indication that any of Lattice, Canyon Bridge or their respective affiliates, officers, directors or other representatives, or any recipient of this information, considered or now considers the prospective financial information to be material or to be a reliable predictor of actual future results, and the prospective financial information should not be relied upon as a reliable predictor of future results.

Any defined terms used but not defined in this supplement to the proxy statement will have the meanings set forth in the proxy statement.

Legal Proceedings Regarding the Merger

The disclosure under the heading “The Merger — Legal Proceedings Regarding the Merger” is hereby amended and supplemented by adding the following paragraph to the end of that disclosure on page 95 of the proxy statement:

On January 27, 2017, an alleged stockholder of Lattice filed a putative class action captioned Sellers v. Lattice Semiconductor Corp., Case Number 1:17-cv-00081, in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware (the “Delaware Federal Action”). The defendants in the action are Lattice and the members of Lattice’s board of directors. The complaint alleges that the defendants violated Sections 14(a) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 14a-9 promulgated thereunder by failing to disclose all material facts concerning the Merger in the proxy statement filed on January 27, 2017. The complaint seeks an order: enjoining defendants from consummating the proposed transaction pending disclosure of additional information, or, if the proposed transaction is consummated, an order rescinding it and awarding rescissory damages; directing defendants to account for damages allegedly suffered by plaintiff and the putative class; awarding plaintiff the costs of the action, including reasonable attorneys’ and experts’ fees; and granting such other and further relief as the court may deem proper. On January 30, 2017, the plaintiff in the Delaware Federal Action filed a motion for a preliminary injunction seeking to enjoin the shareholder vote on the proposed transaction until defendants disclose additional information regarding the transaction. Lattice denies the allegations in the Delaware Federal Action, believes that the proxy statement disclosed all material information, and denies that any supplemental disclosure is necessary.

Background of the Merger

The disclosure under the heading “The Merger — Background of the Merger” is hereby amended and supplemented by adding the following sentences to the end of that disclosure on page 58 of the proxy statement:

As described above under “The Merger — Background of the Merger,” an individual named Mr. Abid Ahmad served as an advisor to Lattice in connection with its exploration of strategic transactions and business development activities. The agreement between Lattice and Mr. Ahmad provides for a monthly fee and reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses of Mr. Ahmad, but it does not provide for any success fee or other payment contingent upon the proposed Merger with Canyon Bridge. Mr. Ahmad has not received any fees from, and has no agreement or understanding with, or ownership interest in, any of the companies with which the Company engaged in negotiations as described under “The Merger — Background of the Merger.”

Also as described under “The Merger — Background of the Merger,” in conjunction with Lattice’s discussions with certain companies with respect to a potential strategic transaction, Lattice entered into non-disclosure agreements, each of which contained a standstill provision lasting either 6 months or 12 months. Lattice requested a 12-month standstill from each of these companies, but the agreed-upon term of the standstill provision was determined based upon negotiation. The non-disclosure agreements contained a provision prohibiting the other party from publicly requesting that Lattice waive the standstill, but did not prohibit the other party from privately contacting Lattice to request that Lattice waive the standstill. All the standstill provisions were released upon the public announcement of the Merger Agreement.

Certain Prospective Financial Data

The disclosure under the heading “The Merger — Certain Prospective Financial Data” is hereby amended and supplemented by adding the following sentences to the end of that disclosure on page 66 of the proxy statement:

As described in the proxy statement under “The Merger — Certain Prospective Financial Data,” Morgan Stanley’s discounted cash flow analysis and the projected free cash flow information used in its discounted cash flow analysis were based upon projections furnished by Lattice management for the years 2016 through 2018 and on extrapolations by Morgan Stanley approved for use by Lattice management for the years 2019 through 2023, except the projections for depreciation and amortization, stock-based compensation and changes in net working capital, which were based on projections furnished by Lattice management for the year 2016 and on extrapolations by Morgan Stanley approved for use by Lattice management for the years 2017 through 2023.

Although the Board considered Lattice management’s projections for gross margin, operating expense and earnings per share for the years 2016 through 2018, and this information is therefore included in the proxy statement, extrapolated financial information for the periods 2019 through 2023 was prepared by Morgan Stanley and approved for use by Lattice management only for operating margin and the other line items where such information was necessary to calculate projected free cash flows, and no extrapolated information with respect to gross margin, operating expense, or earnings per share for the years 2019 through 2023 was prepared or furnished to the Board or any other party.

The prospective financial data set forth under “The Merger — Certain Prospective Financial Data” contains a reconciliation of certain prospective non-GAAP financial information to the closest GAAP equivalent for the years 2016 through 2018, for which Lattice management furnished projections. The chart below provides a reconciliation of certain extrapolated non-GAAP financial information for the years 2019 through 2023 to an extrapolation of the most comparable GAAP measure. The projections prepared by Lattice management included only the years 2016 through 2018, and the extrapolated information for the most comparable GAAP measure presented below is based solely upon a mechanical extrapolation of the projections prepared by Lattice for 2016 through 2018, and does not represent a bottom-up projection for the years 2019 through 2023. The extrapolated information for the most comparable GAAP measure presented below was not prepared for or furnished to the Board or any other party, was not prepared or used by Morgan Stanley in its discounted cash flow analysis, is indicative only and should not be taken as a reliable indicator of actual future performance.

Projected Taxes	8	8	8	8	8	51
GAAP tax expense	10	10	12	14	15	51

Lattice management uses and publicly discloses certain of the non-GAAP financial measures for which prospective financial information has been provided above, as described in the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed on November 10, 2016 and other filings with the SEC, however, the prospective non-GAAP financial information is being provided solely because investors may find it useful to understand how free cash flows were estimated for purposes of the discounted cash flow analysis conducted by Morgan Stanley, and it is not intended to replace any comparable GAAP measure.

Certain statements made herein, including, for example, the supplemental prospective financial information herein, are "forward-looking statements" as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, within the meaning of the federal securities laws, including Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
